

STANDARD FORM NO. 64

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : [REDACTED]

FROM : [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: Report for Week 5-12 June 1952

DATE: 12 June 1952

1. The program to be conducted at the Foreign Service Institute next week has been worked out with [REDACTED]. The program will run for two hours during the days of June 17, June 18, June 19 and June 20. The first

2. Mr. Fisher Howe of the Department of State has again agreed to make the presentation on overt collection. Not only because of his position in the intelligence organization of State but because he has done a very creditable task for us in the past, we should feel very happy about his decision.

3. [REDACTED] of ONE has agreed to fill in in place of Sherman Kent. Though we have used the verb "fill in" we should feel very happy about acquiring a man of [REDACTED] national and international stature in the field of political history where he is very well known, since his writings are considered most authoritative. Besides this he carries a well balanced judgment which should add considerably to his presentation of our program.

4. Discussions with [REDACTED] have resulted in the decision to have [REDACTED] cover current intelligence problems on our future courses--at least definitely for the Seventh Course in July.

5. Invitations have already been issued to State, Army, Navy, Air, and the Joint Staff, to send some persons to attend the Seventh Agency Orientation Course. Names will be submitted very soon [REDACTED]

6. Brig. Gen. Partridge, Assistant Director Intelligence, Joint Staff, is glad to participate on the program as the IAC member. A letter has already been sent from the Director of Training to Gen. Partridge confirming his acceptance.

7. Discussions have been had with Mr. Houston, General Counsel, Mr. Garrison, AD/Procurement and Supply, and Col. Edwards, AD/Inspection and Security, to sound them out on the Presentations Program. Uniformly and without collaboration, they felt that the program can be a useful tool and as such should be conducted not late in the afternoon but preferably at 11:00 A.M. so as to run into the luncheon period and thus give some leeway if necessary. The Director of Training has approved the concept of not attempting to inaugurate the Presentations program until the latter part of July.

8. On Friday, 6 June 1952, the Chief, Orientation and Briefing Division, had an extensive meeting at the Naval Intelligence School with Capt. Frankel, the head of the N.I.S. It was agreed that CIA would be allotted one hour on the program of the Naval Intelligence School to cover primarily the place and responsibility of the Central Intelligence Agency in the Federal intelligence system.

9. During the past week on Monday, 9 June 1952, [] attended the Intelligence Indoctrination Program. Of these, [] were new-comers to the Agency. Two guests were in attendance, viz. [] of Inspection and Security and [] of O/SI. [] (not included in the figure of [] attended part of the program.
